

Basic Physical Defense Instructor Certification

- R.A.D. is the largest network of its kind with over 11,000 Instructors receiving training in our systems to date. These Instructors teach at various colleges, universities, and municipal law enforcement agencies as well as other community organizations internationally
- Realistic self-defense tactics and techniques for women
- R.A.D. is the only existing program with a free lifetime return and practice policy
- Exclusively endorsed by the International Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators (IACLEA), the National Self-Defense Institute, RedMan Training Gear, and the National Academy of Defense Education

Participants will be certified, upon successful completion, to teach the R.A.D. System of Basic Physical Defense. This intense 3-day, 30-hour Instructor Program is a cost effective way to obtain your own Self-Defense Instructor(s) and offer this consistently structured, time tested, proactive program to the women in your community. This is a comprehensive program, the only one of its kind, and now your agency can utilize its basic, tailored format as an addition to your present crime prevention offering. This course is taught in a relaxed environment that is conducive to learning, tested instructional techniques, proven tactics and unique insights about the problem of violence against women. Our program also includes physical defense workouts for technique development and an evening exercise that is designed to simulate confrontational circumstances. From awareness and risk reduction to simulation training suits, this program covers all the basics. Registration includes a 200+ page Instructor Curriculum with Participant Manual, Instructor Certificate, and one year of The Instructor's Voice Newsletter.
