

Replicating Adverse Dynamics Instructor Certification

Havert L. Fenn Center, Ft. Pierce, FL.

May 18-19, 2023

Staff Instructor James Helms

Designed to teach self-defense instructors and personal protection specialists the fundamentals of replicating adverse dynamics in training environments, this state-of-the-art program is an absolute must for any self-defense educator. This program is exclusively endorsed by the International Association of Campus Law Enforcement Administrators (IACLEA), the National Self-Defense Institute, the National Academy of Defense Education and MACHO Martial Arts.

This course explores the most critical issues of simulation training, concentrating on productive drills and scenarios, implementation of those drills and scenarios, supervision and safety. This reality-based simulation scenario-driven program covers situational dynamics from one-on-one hand-to-hand confrontation, multiple subject encounters to weapon defense training issues. Instructors will learn how to expand their program capabilities and take their training to the next level of reality-based intensity. Graduates will be able to conduct dynamic, realistic and safe simulation exercises in any self-defense training venue. Completion of program includes a comprehensive Instructor's curriculum, program materials, and Certification.
